

Kennedy I. Hawkins, President of PT Northwest, was recently elected as President of the National Association of Rehabilitation Providers and Agencies (NARA). NARA was founded in 1978 and is headquartered in Washington, D.C. NARA focuses upon the business side of the physical rehabilitation industry and represents over 15,000 health care professionals. Its members operate in all 50 states. Before being elected as President, Mr. Hawkins served NARA in several roles, such as Regional Coordinator, Board of Director, Treasurer, and Vice President. Mr. Hawkins has been involved with NARA since 1996.

You can find out more information about NARA by visiting them online at naranet.org.